

FRESHER'S DAY

The event started at 2:30 with a devotional song, followed by a welcome dance. Dr. Madhu sudhan Rao Sir (Dean Engineering and Management) addressed the gathering. He passed a message of drug awareness to all the freshers and the students. Dr. M.S. Rao (Registrar) addressed the freshers by suggesting to take care of themselves from the dangerous road accidents through which most of the youngsters are losing their lives. And then the fest started with a full swing. A dance

Finally, Rathiah sir addressed the gathering, saying he was impressed by the performances and wanted singers to take it to next level regarding tune, lyrics and singing. All the lyricists were engineers and he wanted the students to be like that and wanted to see several people involved in clubs also more students involving in activities even after 3:30 instead of being empty, as it would help students being active. To maintain a friendly atmosphere between seniors and juniors would bring friendly correlations. Finally students were suggested not to get attracted towards bad things and to move with right people, friends can influence even more when compared to parents and teachers thereby making good friends helps us developing our nature and also good qualities. Later on, the prizes were distributed for the events that were conducted on independence day. Followed by a marvelous was performed by 2nd year C.S. Estudents followed by a song, sung by Sushma. Energetic dance performances were given by Jahnavi, Prudhvi Raj, Praneeth and teams. Dr. Rukmini (Dean student affairs) has taken the lead to introduce members for avoiding gender bias in the university as per UGC (Akhila 3rd FT, Bhavani 3rd FT, Jonah 3rd BM, Vivek 3rd Mech) they were allotted to avoid gender discrimination and create awareness among students. The event continued with performances from Chaitanya, Pradhyuman and teams. Later a skit was performed from artist club. Several numbers of dance and musical performances were performed by the participants.

performance by music club. Finally the artist club came up and and continued to give an end to thier previous skit.The event ended with a dance performanceby Ranjith followed by vote of thanks at 5:48.