

Fresher's Day celebrated vibrantly in the varsity

The entire campus was under thunderstorm with student's joy and cheers. Fresher's day was vibrantly celebrated in the varsity on Saturday. Chairman and founder Dr. Lavu Rathaiah was the chief guest.

While speaking to the students and gathering he stated that poverty is a kind of gift, hard work and dedication that can pave path to success. To achieve success, poverty shall act as igniting factor. He also said, self-discipline and values are very much important at any point in life and for any one's life and these 2 elements shall play a vital role too. Students should learn to strive hard for this stage to attain higher goals, he added.

During the event, students have performed cultural numbers like dances, skits, singing etc. which made the event more joyous and colourful. The program were also attended by Vice Chairman Lavu Sri Krishnadevarayulu, Vice Chancellor Dr. M. Y. S Prasad and respective departments deans, HoD's and staff.
